Peter, do you love me? Feed my sheep.

Dear brothers and sisters, on this Third Sunday of Easter, the Gospel announces the third appearance of the Risen Jesus. This appearance took place at the Sea of Tiberias. The Gospel tells us that the apostles had gone fishing very early in the morning, and when they returned empty-handed, the Risen Jesus was waiting for them on the shore of the lake. Jesus asked them for fish, but they had not caught anything. He asked them to cast their nets to the boat's right, and they caught a large number of fish that, with great difficulty, reached the seashore.

The apostle John is the one who recognizes that it is Jesus and expresses it out loud. Immediately, Peter jumps into the waters and goes toward Jesus. When the other apostles arrived with the boat full of fish, Jesus invited them to eat. Again, he uses the words of the Eucharist, as he did with the pilgrims on the way to Emmaus.

After having eaten, something extraordinary occurs; Jesus questions Peter about love three times. Some writers of Sacred Scriptures even say that Jesus asked him three times, healing Peter's three denials. After questioning him, the beautiful thing occurs when he entrusts Peter with the early church's care and guidance. It is the institution of the first Pope since he commissions him to oversee, shepherd, and be patient with the apostles — the Church. It gives him the power to guide, lead, teach and sanctify the Church, powers passed down throughout our Church's history through its different popes.

This commission is another excellent fruit of Easter: the Risen Jesus gave us a guide, someone to help us follow Jesus. That was Peter's mission, and it is the mission of our current Pope Francis. Undoubtedly, throughout our Church's history, each Pope has done his best to fulfill this mandate of Jesus.

Brothers and sisters, it is up to us to obey, as the apostles obeyed Peter. Thus we show that Jesus has risen, that Jesus is alive, that Jesus has defeated death. Obedience to our Church is a fruit of Jesus' Resurrection. It is essential to obey the Catholic Church's doctrines as Jesus gave all power and authority to Peter and the apostles, and it has been passed to the leaders of our church, such as bishops.

Brothers and sisters, may the Risen Jesus continue to be our guide who, adapting and living in the Church, leads, guides, and prepares us for the final encounter, where there will be no darkness or death but light and life in the Risen Jesus.

May God bless us all.

Pedro me amas? Apacienta mis ovejas.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, en este III Domingo del Tiempo de Pascua, la palabra del evangelio nos anuncia la tercera aparición de a Jesús resucitado. Esta se llevó a cabo junto al lago de Tiberiades. Nos dice el evangelio que los apóstoles se habían ido a pescar y muy de madrugada, cuando ya regresaban sin ningún fruto, Jesús Resucitado los esperaba a la orilla del lago, Jesús les pide pescado, pero ellos no habían pescado nada, El les pide que echen las redes a la derecha de la barca y han pescado una gran cantidad de peces que con gran dificultad llegaron a la orilla del lago.

El apóstol Juan es quien reconoce que es Jesús, lo expresa en voz alta e inmediatamente Pedro se lanza a las aguas y se dirigió hacia Jesús. Cuando llegaron los otros apóstoles con la barca llena de peces, Jesús los invita a comer. Nuevamente utiliza las palabras eucarísticas como con los peregrinos de Emaus.

Después de haber comido se da algo maravilloso, Jesús cuestiona a Pedro sobre el amor, lo cuestiona tres veces, algunos escritores de las sagradas escrituras llegan a decir que Jesús lo cuestionó tres veces sanando las tres negaciones de Pedro. Lo hermoso está, que después de cuestionarlo, le encomienda el cuidado, la guía de la primitiva iglesia. Lo instituye el primer Papa, puesto que le encomienda que apaciente, que pastoree y nuevamente que a paciente a los apóstoles es decir a la iglesia. Le da el poder de guiar, conducir, enseñar y santificar a la iglesia, poderes que se han ido transmitiendo a lo largo de la historia de nuestra iglesia por medio de los distintos papas que ha tenido nuestra iglesia.

Este es otro gran fruto de la Pascua, de Jesús Resucitado, darnos un guía, alguien que nos ayude a seguir a Jesús, fue la misión de Pedro y es la misión del nuestro actual Papa Francisco. Sin duda que a lo largo de la historia de nuestra iglesia, cada Papa ha hecho lo mejor de sí en cumplir con este mandato de Jesús.

Hermanos y hermanas a nosotros nos corresponde obedecer, cómo los apóstoles obedecieron a Pedro. Así manifestamos que Jesús ha resucitado, que Jesús está vivo, que Jesús ha vencido a la muerte y al pecado. La obediencia a nuestra iglesia es un fruto de La resurrección de Jesús. Es importante obedecer la doctrina de nuestra iglesia católica, puesto que Jesús le dio todo poder y autoridad a Pedro y a través de el a los apóstoles y a los líderes de nuestra iglesia, cómo los obispos.

Hermanos y hermanas, que Jesús resucitado siga siendo nuestra guía que actualizando y vivido en la Iglesia nos conduce, guía y prepara para el encuentro definitivo, donde no habrá oscuridad ni tinieblas, sino luz y vida en Jesús Resucitado.

Que Dios nos bendiga a todos.
